1.6 Eligibility Criteria:

a) To appear in MAH-MPH-CET 2014:

- Candidate who has passed B.Pharm. degree or appeared in final year / final semester of B.Pharm from any AICTE approved institution affiliated with University (approved by UGC), subject to the condition that they must produce proof of passing B. Pharm. examination as per M. Pharm. admission eligibility criterion in original at the time of admission by counseling round.

Note: The MAH-MPH-CET 2014 examination will have the same curriculum, pattern (Only objective questions) similar to GPAT 2014. However there will be no negative marking system in MAH-MPH-CET 2014.

b) For Admission to M. Pharm. through GPAT Qualified Candidates:

The candidate should be an Indian National and who possess bachelor's degree of equivalent in Pharmacy from any AICTE approved institution, with at least 50% marks (at least 45% marks in case of SC/ST category and Persons with Disability candidates belonging to Maharashtra State only)

AND

Should have valid and qualified GPAT 2014 All India Rank / Total Score.

c) For Admission to M. Pharm. through MAH-MPH-CET 2014 Candidates:

The candidate should be an Indian National and who possess bachelor's degree of equivalent in Pharmacy from any AICTE approved institution, with at least 50% marks (at least 45% marks in case of SC/ST category and Persons with Disability candidates belonging to Maharashtra State only)

AND

Should have non-zero Score in MAH-MPH-CET 2014, if the candidate has neither appeared for GPAT 2014 nor having valid and qualified GPAT 2014 All India Rank / Total Score.

Note:- Percent marks means grand total marks obtained by the candidate in subject based on which the class declared is made in the particular university from which the candidate is passing the qualifying examination. The percentage of marks obtained by the candidate in the bachelor's degree would be calculated based on the practice followed by the university / institution from where the candidate has obtained the degree. In case the candidates are awarded grades/CGPA instead of marks, the conversion of grades/CGPA to percentage of marks would be based on the procedure certified by the university/institution from where they have obtained the bachelor's degree. In case the university/institution does not have any scheme for converting CGPA to equivalent marks, the equivalence would be established by dividing the candidates CGPA by the maximum possible CGPA and multiplying the result with 100. In case the percentage of marks in aggregate comes in fraction then percentage of marks in aggregate shall be round up e.g. 44.50 – 44.99 % shall be rounded to 45% and 44.01 – 44.49 % shall be rounded to 44% marks.

- If the institute fails to update the reporting of the candidate through "Online Update", the action shall be taken against the institute as per the GR dated 29.03.2008.
- Three copies of list are to be printed and to be submitted to the concerned Regional Office of Technical Education, duly signed by the Director/Principal / Head of the Institute within 7 days from the cut off date.
- The regional office of the Joint Director of Technical Education shall verify the supporting documents and forward the list of admitted candidate to the Director, Technical Education along with the remarks of Joint Director for final approval.
- The DTE and/or Pravesh Niyantaran Samiti, Mumbai shall accord the final approval to the list of admitted candidates. It is binding on all the Universities to grant enrollment only to the students who are on approved list.

Important Note: All the institutes are required to complete their admission process on or before the cut-off date as specified in the schedule. Any admission carried out after cut-off date will not be approved by DTE and/or Pravesh Niyantaran Samiti, Mumbai.

All the institutes are required to send the status of admitted candidates to the Admission authority time to time as per schedule. In case of late submission of information or / and wrong submission of information the payment of admission fees will be withheld or will not be send for which the institute will be solely responsible.

11.3 Punitive Action on Non-refund Cases after cancellation of admission.

Institutions not following guidelines given by AICTE regarding refund of fees on cancellations or delaying refunds shall be liable to following punitive action from any one or more of the following by the AICTE/DTE.

- Surcharge amounting two times the total fees collected per student shall be levied against each case regarding refund.
- Seats equal to double the number of such cases shall be reduced from intake in the subsequent academic year.
- Suspension of approval for supernumerary seats, if any.

12.0 CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

12.1 Conduct and Discipline for MAH-MPH-CET 2014.

- Failure of the candidate in making full and correct Statements in the application form and/or suppression of any information and/or submission of false documents shall lead to disqualification of the candidate for MAH-MPH-CET 2014. Such a candidate will be debarred from the examination as well as the entire selection process. Therefore the candidate is required to make only such claims which could be substantiated by relevant original documents.
- Adopting any unfair means or engaging in malpractice in the examination shall render a candidate liable for punishment under, "Maharashtra Prevention of Malpractices Act, Universities, Board and Other Specified Examination Act, 1982" and disqualify him/her for MAH-MPH-CET 2014 examination.
- If any person(s) or officer(s) dealing with the conduct of the MAH-MPH-CET 2014 are found engaged in act(s) that would result in the leakage of question paper or attempt to use or help in the use of unfair means in this examination he/she shall be liable to prosecution under Indian Penal Code.
- Any issue not dealt here-in above will be dealt with, when arising, fully and finally by the Competent Authority.

12.2 Conduct and discipline for all students & colleges (Regarding admissions) and Action against ragging:

- Failure of the candidate in making full and correct Statements in the application form and/or suppression of any information and/or submission of false documents shall lead to disqualification of the candidate for MAH-MPH-CET 2014 or even at later date during the Admission Process. Such a candidate will be debarred from the examination as well as the entire selection process. Therefore the candidate is required to make only such claims which could be substantiated by relevant original documents.
- Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, if the Govt. takes any policy decision pertaining to M.Pharm. admission, then the same shall be brought in to effect at that point of time as per the directives from the Govt. from time to time.
- Students while studying in any college, if found indulging in anti-national activities contrary to the provisions of Acts and Laws enforced by Government or in any activity contrary to rules of discipline, will be liable to be expelled from the college without any notice by the Principal/Director of the college.

Condition of minimum attendance: The Students will not be allowed to appear for the examination if he/she do not attend minimum 75 per cent classes of theory, practical, drawing etc.

Action against ragging: Maharashtra Prohibition of Ragging Act 1999 and its amendments which may be published from time to time. The Act is in effect from 15th May, 1999 has the following provisions for Action against Ragging

- a) Ragging within or outside of any educational institution is prohibited,
- b) Whosoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets, or propagates ragging within or outside any educational institution shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term up to 2 years and / or penalty, which may extend to ten thousand rupees.
- c) Any student convicted of an offence of ragging shall be dismissed from the educational institution and such student shall not be admitted in any other educational institution for a period of five years from the date of order of such dismissal.

- d) Whenever any student or, as the case may be, the parent or guardian or a teacher of an educational institution complains, in writing, of ragging to the head of the educational institution, the head of the educational institution shall, without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, within seven days of the receipt of the complaint, enquire into the matter mentioned in the complaint and if, prima facie, it is found true, suspend the student who is accused of the offence, and shall, immediately forward the complaint to the police station having jurisdiction over the area in which the educational institution is situated, for further action. Where, on enquiry by the head of the educational institution, it is found that there is no substance, prima facie, in the complaint received, he / she shall intimate the fact, in writing, to the complainant. The decision of the head of the educational institution shall be final.
- e) If the Head of the educational institution fails or neglects to act in the manner specified in section "d" above when a complaint of ragging is made, such person shall be deemed to have abetted the offence and shall, on conviction, be punished as provided for in section "b" above.

Any Acts or its amendments which may be published from time to time or Judgments by Hon. Courts of India will be applicable to Candidates and Institutes covered under these rules of admission. All the institutes are hereby instructed to strictly follow the recent guidelines of AICTE in order to prevent ragging.

- If any of the statement made in application form or any information supplied or any certificate(s) submitted by the candidate in connection with his or her admission is later on at any time, found to be false or incorrect, his or her admission will be cancelled, fees forfeited and he or she may be expelled from the college by the Principal/Director. An appeal against the order of expulsion, however, may be sent within 7 days to the Director of Technical Education, Maharashtra State, Mumbai, whose decision in such cases will be final. Such candidates are also liable for penal action as per the provisions in the law.

Legal jurisdiction:

All disputes pertaining to the conduct of examination and admission shall fall within the jurisdiction of Mumbai High Court, bench at Mumbai only. The Competent Authority shall be the legal person in whose name the Government of Maharashtra may sue or may be sued. If any person(s) or officer(s) dealing with the conduct of the MAH-MPH-CET 2014 found engaged in act(s) that would result in the leakage of question paper or attempt to use or help in the use of unfair means in this examination he/she shall be liable to prosecution under Indian Penal Code.

13.0 UNDERTAKING
